

Tool Operated Swing Handle H812

Product Description

A tool operated swing handle, with the locking mechanism operable by use of a special tool or spanner. With a polyamide 30% glass fiber body for strength and durability, the H812 has a pop-out swing handle and is available with a number of options including IP65 water resistant or UL94 V0 flame resistant. Further options include a choice of 1-point, 2-point or 3-point cam or rod-latch system, contact us today for further information.

- Lock type: Tool Operated Lock. See Technical Drawing below for available lock types.
- Panel thickness: 1 – 2.5mm please state when ordering
- Standard finish: Black 9005 RAL
- Available with 1, 2, 3 point cam or rod-latch system: please state when ordering
- Polyurethane sticker
- Pop-out function

Optional features – please contact sales department to discuss

- Customised logo
- IP65 water resistant available on request
- UL94 V0 flame resistant available on request (minimum order quantity applies)
- Alternative colours and materials available upon request

Options

Product Code	Handle Height	Handle Width	Max Panel Thickness
H812	165	34	1 – 2.5